HAPPY HOLIDAYS FROM VASTU CREATIONS!

The Energy of Prosperity in the Season of Giving

Prosperity abounds in our universe yet many live in lack, poverty, and disillusionment. It is especially challenging for people who have limited resources during the Holiday Season, a season symbolic of giving, love and forgiveness. We at Vastu Creations encourage you to please step out of your comfort zones during the Holidays and give as a gesture of kindness to those less fortunate than yourself. Doing this in the spirit of love and service to humanity will bring you many blessings.

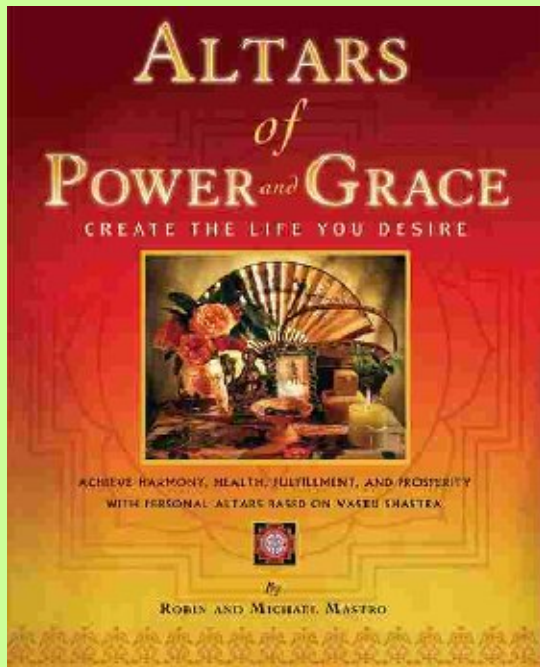

If we as a collective trusted the existence of abundance as a flow of energy and tithed a percentage of our income to others in the spirit of love and generosity, there would be less suffering and we would support healing on our planet. This is needed now, more than ever.

Service done with an open heart teaches us that we are part of the fabric of life. When we isolate, we eliminate the possibility of developing the deeper gifts of kindness and compassion within us. When we give out of a desire to do good work in the world it fills the well-spring of who we are with sweetness. By giving with love for our fellow man, we fill our hearts with more love. It is the constant flow of blessings which enlivens and feeds our spirits.

Testimonials - The Power of Vastu

I placed the Shree Yantra you gave me on the windowsill of the North wall of my meditation room, just as you said. I know you told me it would bring prosperity, and since I am always in favor of that, I decided to follow your directions. Well, a few weeks passed, and suddenly an unexpected windfall came into our life. We learned that the utility company wanted the rights to a small slice of a piece of property that has been in our family for many years. We didn't think much of it, but when it came through, the settlement was many times over what we anticipated. It actually was quite a large sum. I was filled with gratitude for the grace and abundance of the universe. It was some weeks later when one day my eyes fell on the Shree Yantra on my windowsill. It was not until that moment that I recognized the connection. So I just wanted to write and let you know that now I get it! Thanks so much.

I do believe that Michael Mastro is brilliant! One of the most sincere and humble people I have met. When it comes to stuff like Vastu etc, I always wonder how effective it can be, but on the several occasions that Michael has helped us, I have seen absolutely amazing results. I can't explain it, but it always seems to push things in the right direction. We had our house on the market for several weeks. While it was on the market, there was some water flooding, which ruined the floors and pretty much eliminated the chances of the house selling until damage was fixed. My wife, Rekha, requested Michael's help. He was kind enough to take time out of a very busy schedule to come over, do the Vastu and we had an offer the next day! I was touched that Michael went out of his way to accommodate our request, demonstrated the ultimate concern and care. Call it spirituality, luck, fortune, the sincere good wishes of friends, the power of mediation/prayer or coincidence, celestial forces - but the house sold the very next day! That in itself is unbelievable considering how long it sat on the market.

An excerpt from The Way of Vastu... Gratitude is the Essence of Successful Living

A monk was on a pilgrimage and, as night fell, he came upon a village where he begged for lodging. Although it was quite cold outside the villagers refused him shelter, so he took refuge under a cherry tree in the fields. He was very cold and could not sleep. After awhile in that cold spring night, the monk noticed fully opened cherry blossoms overhead, laughing into the misty moonlight. Overcome with their beauty, he became grateful to the villagers for refusing him shelter.

At that moment he became fully enlightened.

Life is immense, and each moment comes bearing a thousand and one gifts. The instant that we accept with gratitude all that life brings, we become wealthy. When our hearts are full of gratitude, we perceive the abundance that greets us at every turn. We begin to understand that even when a door appears closed, it may actually be the opening to an even greater blessing to come.

When you complete balancing your environment according to the principles of Vastu, we advise you to take the time and reflect on the meaning of gratitude in your life. So often, like the monk in the story above, you can lose sight of the bigger picture before you grow in awareness. The ability to feel gratitude in your present circumstances, however meager they may initially appear, is the fertile ground from which positive change springs. The shift toward the abundance and prosperity that you desire cannot occur within an ungrateful heart. Be positive, be patient, above all be grateful, and allow your future to unfold with ease.

MAY THE SEASON OF PEACE BRING YOU MUCH JOY AND AND HAPPINESS!
